

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

Progressive Dampness.

"Young Twobble first decided that he wanted to be a lawyer."

"Yes."

"But he thought the law was too dry, so he decided to become a doctor."

"But even that was too dry, so he opened a drug store in a dry town, and now it's the wettest place you can find in a day's walk."

QUIT MEAT IF KIDNEYS BOTHER AND USE SALTS

Take a Glass of Salts Before Breakfast if Your Back is Hurting or Bladder is Irritated.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

A Stranger.

"Tomorrow will be the first Sunday of the year, and I propose to commence the new year by going to church," announced Mr. Gibbs, reverently.

"You'd better take me with you," calmly rejoined Mrs. Gibbs.

"What for?"

"You may need somebody to identify you."—Judge.

"CASCARETS" ACT ON LIVER; BOWELS

No sick headache, biliousness, bad taste or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver, and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience; and cost only 10 cents a box from your store. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipation. Adv.

Let's be kind to the beggars. We may want to borrow money of them some day.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 13

HUMBLED AND EXALTED.

LESSON TEXT—Phil. 2:1-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich.—II Cor. 8:9.

The key word of the first chapter of Philippians is "confidence" (see vv. 6, 14, 25). Paul has confidence in the church at Philippi on account of their spiritual condition (vv. 1, 2), which resulted in fellowship (vv. 3-8) and fruitfulness (vv. 9-13). This confidence inspires boldness and is a source of joy and blessing. Paul's creed is also set forth in chapter 1:5-11. This confidence is in the face of the conflict and suffering which was before them (see 1:27-30).

I. Be of the Same Mind, vv. 1-4. The key word of this chapter is the word "comfort" (vv. 1, 19). The first section might be entitled "The Comfort of Love" (vv. 1-18) and the second section "The Comfort of Knowledge" (vv. 19-30). If there was to be opposition from without certainly the Christians ought to stand together. Paul is urging them to unity in order that it might comfort and console him. He had always rejoiced in this church (1:4), but he desires them to "fill full his joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind." Paul's comfort of love in the disciples he anticipated would be due to their state of mind, which depended upon (a) unity (vv. 1, 2); (b) humility (v. 3); (c) that they might "mind the things of others" (v. 4). Nothing would so comfort and console, or so gladden the heart of Paul as such unity. It was even so with the heart of our Lord (see John 17:21). The words "be of the same mind" do not refer merely to a unity of opinion, but rather to a unity of purpose and affection, literally "being soul'd together."

II. Let This Mind . . . Which Was Also in Christ Jesus, vv. 5-8. The second comfort of love was due, not to a unity of mind, but to the standing which Paul and this church had in Christ, due to his (Christ's) standing in God. The words of this passage are among the most wonderful to be found anywhere in the Bible. They contain a statement of the most profound truth and mystery that we have regarding the person of our Lord Jesus Christ. No plummet has sounded their depth, nor rod scaled their height, nor tape measured their breadth. His eternal deity—and on the other hand his amazing self-humiliation—yet these facts and truths are brought before us to enforce the homeliest duties of every day life. Equal to God (John 10:30) yet he gave up his divine glory and incarnated himself in the historical Jesus, was anointed of God, died on a Roman cross, buried in Joseph's tomb, yet rose again and is alive today as much as when he walked o'er Galilee's hills. The mind that was in Jesus was a purpose to choose the lowest depth of humiliation rather than a full equality with God, either choice of which he might have made; but he chose the former—creation's most sublime illustration of self-sacrifice—and this is the mind we should have. The word "robbery" implies a thing to be seized hold of. Instead of seizing hold of equality with God, Jesus let go and seized hold of the death on the cross, and thus made himself of no reputation, literally emptied himself. The context shows of what he emptied himself: (a) his divine form; (b) his divine glory. This latter is shown by his birth in a stable and his death upon a cross, thereby being under the curse of God (Gal. 3:13). But this was an act of obedience to God (v. 8). The father bade him to do it. The sacrifice of Christ had its original source in the will of God—his love towards us (John 3:16, Rom. 5:8). There are three thoughts in this passage: (a) the incarnation; (b) the passion; (c) the exaltation. Keep this in mind and remember Paul's circumstances in prison when he wrote this letter.

III. God Also Hath Exalted Him, vv. 9-11. The result of this comfort of love, due to a state of mind on the part of the disciples and their having the mind of Christ, was first the exaltation of Christ (v. 9), and the giving unto him of "the" name, not "a" name, that is above all other names; and secondly, worship on the part of all of God's creation, every knee bowed in submission; and third, Confession (v. 11). Jesus, who humbled himself to the lowest place, God has exalted to the highest place. Humiliation of self is the path to exaltation by God.

The name "Jesus" is above every name, because Jesus has been exalted above every man.

The worship mentioned here is not merely that we worship through him, though that is true (John 14:6). The phrase "every knee shall bow" is a clear expression of the oneness of Jehovah and Jesus.

Notice that those that bow are in heaven, in earth and in Hades (Rev. 5:3).

Even lost men and angels who will not bow now will have to do so some day though it will then have no saving power in it for them.

New Party Dresses for Little Girls

Pretty dresses for little girls are made of the finest of cotton materials and occasionally chiffon taffeta is figured in as available for their dressiest frocks. But the beautiful refinement of sheer white wash fabrics, coupled with the daintiness of lace and the elegance of handstitching makes dresses like those shown above always a happy choice.

The party frock shown on the left is made of fine white net flouncing. Its lower edge is finished with small scallops and sprays of little embroidered flowers. A narrow ruffle of the edging is set on to the plain net underskirt and the full "slipover" with baby waist is worn over it. The sleeves are merely short ruffles of the edging.

A plain slip of pink chiffon taffeta is worn under the net, and a pink sash of satin messaline ribbon ends in a butterfly bow at the back. Of course a pink hair bow reminds one of a blossom, in the flaxed curls of its proud and happy wearer.

For the older girl a dress of white organdie is shown in which narrow val lace and hand embroidery appear to best advantage. This little frock is in two pieces, consisting of a short skirt made of two flounces, set on to a long plain underbodice, and a straight-hanging blouse finished with hand embroidery at the bottom, which falls over the sash. The blouse and the underbodice both fasten in the back.

The blouse is made with a small square yoke of val insertion, edged with lace, set into a deeper yoke of the organdie, which is covered with fine tucks. The body of the blouse is filled into this yoke at the back and front and hangs in even length all round. Large uneven scallops follow the outline of the lower motifs which are embroidered at the bottom edge.

The two flounces on the underbodice which form the short skirt are edged with narrow val insertion and edging in fine quality. The insertion is let into the full, three-quarter length sleeves, as shown in the picture, and they are finished with a band made of the val insertion and edging.

This dress is worn over a slip of white organdie, with ruffle of fine embroidery at the bottom. The sash of taffeta ribbon is tacked to the under-skirt and fastened with a flat bow having short ends at the back. An ambitious bow, like it in color—but edged with a narrow border of black, redeems the braided hair from its plain and staid appearance. It is large enough to flaunt a happy frivolity as the keynote of the toilette.

Since the American occupation of Hawaii, the leper population has been about halved.

Diversity of Style in Bodices

Just as a suggestion, and by way of a reminder of the great diversity of styles which have been accepted during the present season, one of the straight bodices is shown above. It is made of satin, except the sleeves, which are of lace, and is worn with a skirt of net and lace. Although the skirt is made separate the effect of the frock, with this bodice, is of a one-piece garment.

There is a panel at the back of this bodice which extends almost in a straight line from the neck to a point six inches or more below the waist line. At the front a vestee, narrow at the top, widens as it extends downward and merges into a wide girde of the satin. The girde is also graduated in width, growing narrower as it becomes a sash, knotted, with hanging ends, at the back.

The sides of the bodice are set on to the panel at the back and the vest at the front, with a little fullness gathered into the seams. A deep collar of net is narrowed over the shoulders and becomes a little cascade of net at each side of the V-shaped neck in the front.

The sleeves are merely flounces of lace over short foundation sleeves of net, and reach not quite to the elbow. Even thus abbreviated they provide really more sleeve than falls to the lot of evening gowns. A mere cape over the shoulder, of tulle or wisp of tulle supported by shoulder straps, simply suggests sleeves in these. They are worn for no purpose other than to enhance the beauty of the arm.

Gowns designed on lines that are straight from the bust to a point below the hips are to be found among those made for afternoon as well as for evening wear. And it happens that this idea is found in garments of much distinction. For remodeling a frock of net or lace, or for providing an extra bodice by way of change, the model shown in the picture will prove its worth.

PANAMA CANAL DEFENSE	DEMANDS SHIP'S RETURN	GASOLINE SUPPLY ABUNDANT
General Clarence Says Twenty-five Thousand Men Are Needed. Washington—The senate military committee listened to the testimony of Brig. Gen. Clarence Edwards in command of the Panama canal garrison who told of the military needs of the canal. He said that 25,000 men would be required to furnish adequate protection, adding that the canal's forts could not guard the zone unless backed up by a mobile army. His statement regarding the canal zone, he said, applied with equal force to the Hawaiian islands. Gen. Edwards advocated a total army of 220,000 regulars backed up to 500,000 in six years.
